

- The game's first page will just have play button.

• After clicking on play button.

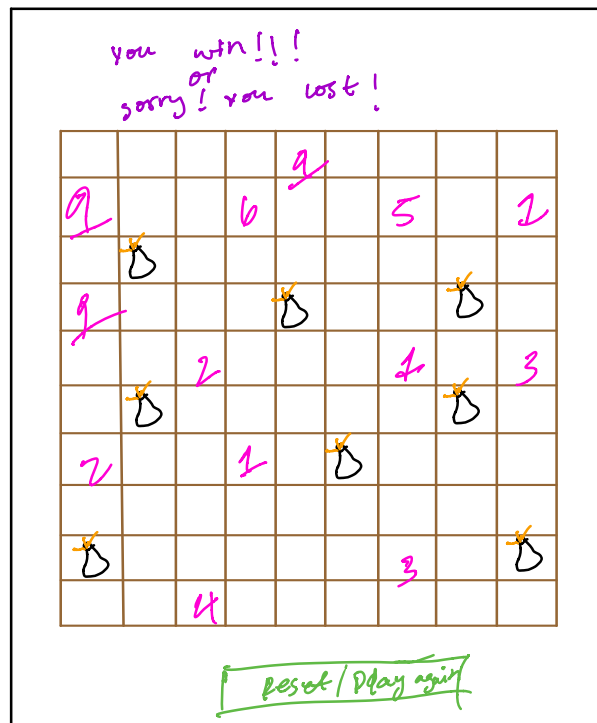

- The grid will appear and player will be ready to live in.

- The grid will be 10x10

- In case of a win, that is if player successfully opens all the boxes without touching the bombs then there will be a winning message or if he loses then there will be another message.

- play again or reset button will appear once the game is finished.